

Welcome to the team!

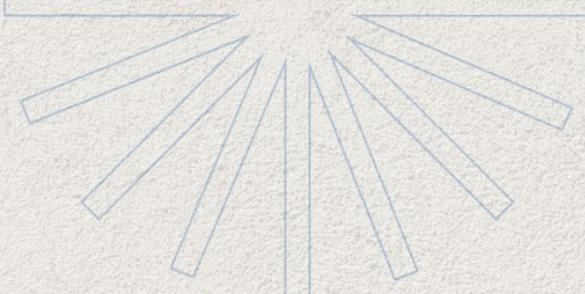

Erin Hart

Human Resources Director

Erin Hart has joined our school as the Senior Director of HR! Erin has dedicated nearly 20 years to public education, beginning her career as a middle school science teacher and later holding senior HR and operations leadership positions in DC public charter schools. She also brings experience in adult education, having led the launch of an in-person software engineering bootcamp, where she supported learning initiatives and helped students secure their first tech jobs.

Throughout her career, Erin has worked diligently to ensure that students have access to high-quality educators. She believes this is possible only when educators' well-being, equitable practices, and meaningful growth opportunities are prioritized.

A native of Delaware, Erin now proudly calls Washington, DC, home. She is a graduate of Howard University, where she earned a B.S. in Biology, and she also holds an M.S. in Human Resources Management from the University of Maryland University College. Erin resides in the Deanwood neighborhood with her husband, Frank, and their son, Wesley.

Keith Juarez

PRINCIPAL AT
Sonia Gutierrez
Campus

Keith Juarez brings over 20 years of experience in education as a certified English as a Second Language (ESL) teacher, program coordinator, and academic administrator, ranging from pre-kindergarten to adult instruction in public, private, and charter schools on Guam, Maryland, and Washington D.C.

He joined the Carlos Rosario School in 2019, first as a computer lab and ESL 5 instructor, then as a Harvard Street Campus professional development specialist/instructional coach, and currently as an academic administrator at the Sonia Gutierrez Campus. He has supervised ESL levels 5, 7, and 8, Advanced English, ESL tutors, IC3, and programs in Career Training, including Bilingual Teaching Assistant, Nurse Aide Training, and IT Fundamentals.

Keith's passion for teaching stems from his commitment to lifelong learning, with an undergraduate degree in mass media communications and multiple graduate degrees in education administration and supervision, educational leadership, and educational technology. Originally from Guam, he has lived in the D.M.V. area since 2011. Keith lives by the mantra, "We rise by lifting others," and in his free time, enjoys competitive tennis and watching documentaries.

Santiago Sanchez

Harvard Street
Campus

Santiago Sanchez is a dedicated adult educator and instructional leader with over 20 years of experience in second language acquisition, bilingual education, and workforce development. His professional journey spans school districts in Mexico, New Mexico, and Philadelphia, as well as the Office of the State Superintendent of Education in Washington, D.C. From his early work as a bilingual teacher and ESL instructor to his current role as Assistant Principal at Carlos Rosario International PCS, Santiago has consistently championed culturally responsive instruction and career-focused education for adult learners.

He currently oversees and supports ESL and workforce development initiatives, including the Bilingual Teacher Assistant (BTA) program, which equips multilingual adults with the skills and knowledge needed to enter the education field as classroom support professionals and pursue further certification.

Santiago's career reflects a deep commitment to immigrant and linguistically diverse communities. He has led professional development efforts for educators across Washington, DC, with a focus on English learners and standards-based instruction. His areas of expertise include biliteracy frameworks, curriculum implementation, and data-driven instructional planning to enhance adult learning outcomes.

Holding an MBA in Educational Leadership and DC administrative certification, Santiago brings a strategic blend of instructional leadership and operational expertise. His background also includes extensive experience in adult learning theory, asynchronous course development, and the integration of workforce training, positioning him as a key advocate for equitable, high-quality educational opportunities for adult learners.
